

Pence and Stutzman talk about tax vote

Published : Friday, 17 Dec 2010, 10:01 PM EST

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (WANE) - President Obama signed a deal into law today extending the Bush tax cuts for another two years. That means Americans won't see a tax hike on New Year's Day.

Two conservative Republicans who represent northeast Indiana split their votes on this bill overnight.

Rep. Mike Pence voted against it, while Rep. Marlin Stutzman voted for it.

"It was a tough call for me as we looked at a bill that would add some 140 billion dollars in new spending, and only provide short term tax relief," said Rep. Pence who represents Indiana's 6th District.